Dr. Harry Reizner

Charles St. George

The past year, two remarkable gentlemen passed from our midst, each a champion in his own right.Dr. Harry Reizner and Charles St. George made significant impact on their fellow man and each will be missed by the Los Angeles Rams' family.

Harry Reizner was a preeminent podiatrist who was acknowledged as a leader in his field of medicine. He had a keen sense of humor and was always willing to help those in need. Dr. Reizner particularly loved children of all races, creeds, and religions. He devoted countless hours to innumerable charitable causes and was honored by many prestigious groups, among them Pepperdine University, the Shrine and B'nai B'rith. His warmth and compassion will never be forgotten by those whose lives he touched.

Charles St. George was an Englishman of great bearing, a decorated member of the Queen's Coldstream Guards, who fought with distinction for his country. Charles loved his fellow man and had a deep commitment to charity. He also had a passion for American football and was one of the driving forces in bringing the game to England. His friendship will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to be called his friend.

Both Harry Reizner and Charles St. George were members of the Rams' Advisory Board. This year's Los Angeles Rams media guide is dedicated to the memory of these exemplary human beings.

GEORGIA FRONTIERE RAMS

OWNER and PRESIDENT

Georgia Frontiere, the dynamic Owner and President of the Los Angeles Rams, also is an active community leader and internationally-known philanthropist and patron of the arts.

On the business side, Georgia presided over the restructuring of her entire coaching staff, highlighted by the hiring of the highly-successful Chuck Knox, who returns to the Rams after an absence of 15 years, during which he turned around programs at Buffalo and Seattle. During his NFL career, Knox has compiled a record of 171-114-1, making him the sixth most successful coach in league history. During Georgia's 13 years as Owner and President, the team has reached the playoffs eight times, the conference championship game three times and the Super Bowl once.

During the off-season, Georgia received the prestigious Ellis Island Medal of Honor, presented by the National Ethnic Coalition of Organizations, joining a blue-ribbon group of community leaders that included General Norman Schwarzkopf, entertainer Phil Donahue, industrialist George Steinbrenner, baseball Hall of Famer Johnny Bench, and author Gay Talese.

Georgia was honored for her community involvement and for "having greatly contributed to our national identity while preserving the distinct values and heritage of her ancestors."

Early in 1991, Georgia displayed her concern for youth and education by making an unprecedented $1 million donation to the Fulfillment Fund, an organization that involves more than 2,200 students who are annually selected by their counselors and teachers as having college potential.

The needs of children are of particular interest to Georgia. She is on the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Boys' and Girls' Club in East Los Angeles and the Los Angeles Orphanage Guild as well as a Benefactor of the St. Jude Children's Research Center. Also, the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America (Western Regional Executive Board) and the American Foundation for AIDS Research (National Board member).

Georgia also is a leader in the field of education, underwriting scholarships in various fields of learning at UCLA and USC, among other schools. She is a Trustee of Chapman University in Orange and a Life Associate of Pepperdine University in Malibu. All of this is part of her commitment of helping others to achieve their goals.

Other causes receiving Georgia's attention include the Lamar Lundy Medical Research Fund and the Homeless Women and Children of Skid Row. Georgia announced the establishment of the Lundy fund and made the first contribution. Lundy is a former member of the famed Rams' Fearsome Foursome who suffers from the neuromuscular disease, Myasthenia Gravis. Georgia also is a member of the NFL Alumni Board of Governors, an advisory panel of leaders that shares its expertise with alumni leadership.

Artistic involvement has a high priority in the life of Georgia Frontiere. While she is known primarily for her involvement in football, the game represents only a portion of her varied life. She is a Patron of the Los Angeles Music Center, a member of the Boards of the Los Angeles Music Center Opera Guild and Opera Pacific, New York's Collegiate Chorale, and the Advisory Board of the Master Chorale of Orange County. She receives many requests to lecture at colleges and universities throughout the world, and is planning to add this to her off-season agenda.

Georgia has two children, son Dale Rosenbloom, who is married to the former Kathleen Melville, and Lucia Pamela Rodriguez, who is married to Lupe Rodriguez. Georgia has three grandchildren, William, Stuart and Andrew Rodriguez, ages 9, 7 and 4.

JOHN SHAW

Executive Vice President
13th Season with Rams

John Shaw joined the Rams in 1979. As the principal operating executive of the Rams' organization, Shaw oversees all aspects and operations of the franchise and serves as the primary advisor to team owner Georgia Frontiere on all financial, business, and legal matters. Shaw is actively involved in shaping the present and future direction of the NFL as a member of the National Football League Management Council Executive Committee.

A native of New York, Shaw is a member of the State of California Bar as well as a Certified Public Accountant. He attended the University of San Diego, graduating with a bachelor's degree in accounting. Shaw continued his education at the University of California at San Diego and New York University School of Law, from which he received a Juris Doctor Degree. He then returned to California, where he engaged in the private practice of law prior to joining the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen & Co. Shaw recently was named to the Council of Trustees of LEARN and also is a member of the Fraternity of Friends of Los Angeles Music Center.

Shaw and his wife, Michele, reside in Westwood. The Shaws have a daughter, Alexandra.

JAY ZYGMUNT
Senior Vice President
11th Season with Rams

Jay Zygmunt came to the Rams in 1982. As Senior Vice President, Zygmunt oversees all day-to-day operations of the Rams, working closely with head coach Chuck Knox in the management of football operations as well as serving as the club's principal negotiator of player contracts. Zygmunt's responsibilities encompass the management of the club's legal, business, and financial affairs. He also serves as the Rams' liaison to both the National Football League Management Council and the National Football League Players' Association in the area of player and club relations. In addition, Zygmunt represents the club in all arbitration proceedings of player grievances.

A native of Chicago, Zygmunt was graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1973 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and went on to earn his Juris Doctor degree from Northwestern University School of Law. Zygmunt also is a Certified Public Accountant. Prior to joining the Rams he was associated with Arthur Andersen & Company and had practiced law.

Zygmunt is a member of the American Bar Association's Forum Committee on the Entertainment and Sports Industries, and the Sports Lawyers Association. He resides in Marina Del Rey.

MARSHALL KLEIN

Vice President-Media and Community Relations

10th Season with Rams

As the Rams' Vice President of Media and Community Relations, Marshall Klein's duties span several departments in the organization. He serves as the liaison between owner Georgia Frontiere and various departments and is closely involved with the countless charities which are supported by the Rams and their owner.

Klein oversees the marketing, public relations and entertainment departments and represents the team at numerous charitable and civic events. This 50-year-old Pittsburgh native had spent 21 years with the Los Angeles Times, the last 15 as Sports Editor of the Orange County Edition, before joining the Rams in May of 1983. He has been a part-time lecturer at several Southern California universities, among them Cal State Fullerton, Cal State Long Beach and Cal State Dominguez Hills. Klein makes his home in Tustin with his wife, Katie, and their children, Philip, Michael, Benjamin and Molly.

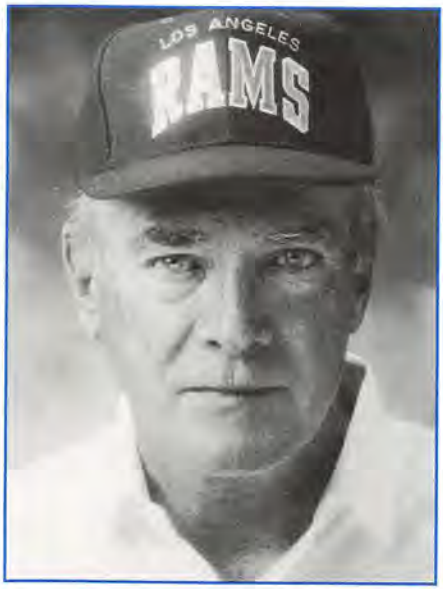
STUDENT WINS MEDIA GUIDE ART CONTEST

The cover illustration for the Rams' 1992 media guide was created by Sanjay Patel, 18, a 1992 graduate of San Bernardino High School.

Sanjay's illustration was selected as the winner of the Los Angeles Rams and Los Angeles Times-sponsored art competition that was open to Southland students 18 years of age and under. Sanjay wins a $5,000 scholarship to continue his education.

CHUCK KNOX

Head Coach and Vice President



On a career path that leads to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, Chuck Knox has achieved numerous distinctions, most important of which has been his ability to rescue struggling teams. Knox is the only coach in the 73-season history of the NFL to win division championships for three different franchises.

Rams Owner and President Georgia Frontiere appointed Knox the eighteenth head coach of the Rams January 8, 1992. "Chuck has proven himself to be one of the great coaches in NFL history," said Frontiere. "I have every confidence that under his leadership the Rams will be back in the playoffs."

Knox originally showed that leadership when he was the fifteenth head coach of the Rams, posting a 54-15-1 record from 1973-77 and winning five consecutive NFC West championships. Knox also won division titles in 1980 at Buffalo and in 1988 at Seattle. His Rams, Bills, and Seahawks teams have qualified for the playoffs 11 times and won at least 10 regular-season games nine times.

Knox's 171 regular-season victories rank sixth all time. Knox and Paul Brown are the only NFL coaches to win division titles in each of their first five seasons. Knox in 1992 will become the sixth to be a head coach in 300 NFL games. Knox's .600 career winning percentage ranks among the leaders of coaches with at least 10 seasons' experience. He is one of nine coaches who have inherited losing teams and taken them to the playoffs in their first season. Knox is the only coach to do it twice.

The Rams were 6-7-1 in 1972 and rebounded to 12-2 under Knox in 1973. The Seattle Seahawks were 14-27 in the three previous seasons but rebounded to 9-7 under Knox, qualified for the playoffs, and reached the AFC Championship game in 1983. The Buffalo Bills were 5-28 in the two seasons prior to Knox's arrival but went 11-5 in 1980, Knox's third season, and won the AFC East for the first time since 1966.

Knox this year becomes the eighth 20-season head coach in NFL history.

"You have to be willing to adjust to the times," Knox said of his tenure during an interview earlier this year. "Situation substitution, throwing the ball a lot more, the shotgun formation, multiple offensive sets, using different defensive schemes...from the four-man line when we were here before to the three-man line and now back to the four-man line...."

Knox has been NFL Coach of the Year four times, with the Rams in 1973, with Buffalo in 1980, and with Seattle in 1983 and '84. Knox also was AFC Coach of the Year, as designated by United Press International, Football News, Vince Lombardi Committee, Seattle Gold Helmet Committee, and Kansas City 101 Club in 1983. He was AFC Coach of the Year in 1984, as chosen by UPI and the Professional Football Writers' Association.

Knox was a pro assistant coach for 10 seasons before coming to the Rams in 1973. He was offensive line coach of the New York Jets from 1963-66 and also scouted college players and helped sign collegiate stars such as Joe Namath during the rivalry between the NFL and American Football League. Knox became an NFL assistant coach when he moved to the Detroit Lions as offensive line coach in 1967. He remained with the Lions through 1972.

Knox's coaching career began in 1954 at his alma mater, Juniata College in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania. Knox was an assistant at the high school in Tyrone, Pennsylvania, in 1955 and head coach at Ellwood City High from 1956-58. He became a collegiate coach in 1959 at Wake Forest University, then moved to Kentucky for the 1961 and '62 seasons.

Knox was graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in history from Juniata College after earning four football letters as a tackle and serving as the team's co-captain his senior year. Knox received the school's National Alumni Achievement Award in 1974, serves on the college's Board of Directors, and was accorded an honorary doctorate in 1983.

Knox was born April 27, 1932, in Sewickley, Pennylvania, a community of 8,000 persons near Pittsburgh. He attended Sewickley High and established a $20,000 scholarship at the high school, renamed Quaker Valley High, in the name of childhood friend Dominic Roppa, who passed away in 1988. The high school and collegiate home fields on which Chuck played have been renamed in his honor: Knox Field at Quaker Valley High and Knox Stadium at Juniata.

Knox and writer Bill Plaschke of the Los Angeles Times collaborated on a best-selling book, "Hard Knox", in 1988. Knox also has helped raise more than $100,000 for various charities by annually donating fine money collected from players.

Chuck is married to the former Shirley Rhine. They reside in Villa Park and have three daughters, Chris, who operates a travel agency in Denver; Colleen Estey, a Penn State graduate who lives in Stratford, Connecticut; Kathy Norman, a housewife in Redlands, California, and a son, Chuck, a University of Arizona graduate who is a salesman in Seattle. The Knoxes have two grandchildren.

DID YOU KNOW?

From 1973-'79, the Rams controlled the NFC West division crown – a streak of seven straight seasons. No other team in the NFL has ever won as many consecutive division titles.

JACK FAULKNER

Administrator of Football Operations/ Director of Pro Personnel
38th NFL Season
28th With Rams

Faulkner's additional responsibilities with the Rams as director of pro personnel are representative of six decades (1949-92) in football by one of the game's most astute minds.

Faulkner came into the NFL in 1955 as secondary coach for the Rams after six seasons at the University of Cincinnati. Since joining the Rams 37 years ago, Faulkner has coached or coordinated all areas of defense and was the offensive backfield coach of the 1979 Rams team that won the NFC championship and played the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XIV. Faulkner was an assistant coach for the San Diego Chargers, New Orleans Saints, Minnesota Vikings, and Rams and was the director of player personnel for New Orleans and has been director of pro scouting and Assistant General Manager for the Rams.

The native of Youngstown, Ohio was American Football League Coach of the Year in 1962 with the Denver Broncos and secondary coach of the Chargers in 1961 when that group set a standing professional record with 42 pass interceptions in 14 games.

Faulkner was inducted into the Youngstown Hall of Fame in 1991 and also is a member of the Curbstone Coaches Hall of Fame in Youngstown. He was recipient of the Orange County Sports Hall of Fame's Good Guy award and was 1991 Humanitarian of the Year, as chosen by Triple X Armenian, a group of charity-conscious Armenian-American businessmen in Orange County that Faulkner assisted in raising funds for the Orangewood Home for Abused Children.

The Jack Faulkner golf tournament each year benefits the American Diabetes Association. Faulkner also is honorary chairman of another tournament that benefits the Make-a-Wish Foundation of Orange County. Faulkner also is vice president of the NFL Alumni, Orange County chapter, and is a member of the Orange County Sheriff's Advisory Council.

Faulkner and his wife, Betty, make their home in Costa Mesa and have two children, Cathy and Jon.

JOHN BECKER

Director of Player Personnel
13th NFL Season
First with Rams

Becker, 49, joined the Rams' scouting department after spending the last three years as the offensive coordinator of the Seattle Seahawks. Becker served as quarterbacks coach from 1985-86 and as offensive coordinator from 1987-88 for the Indianapolis Colts. Becker broke into the NFL with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1980 as a special assistant for quality control, and coached running backs (1981-82) and receivers (1983) before moving to the Buffalo Bills as quarterbacks coach in 1984. Becker began his coaching career at Crespi High in Encino (1965), while an undergraduate at Cal State-Northridge and entered the collegiate ranks as head freshman coach at UCLA in 1970. Becker attended Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks. Becker has two daughters, Kristine, and Karen, and one son, John.

TANK YOUNGER

Director of Player Relations
44th NFL Season
32nd With Rams

Tank Younger has pursued one of the most remarkable careers in sports. He was named to the newly created position of Director of Player Relations for the Rams during the off-season. Younger is familiar with the position, one of many Younger has filled since he blazed a trail as a rookie running back and linebacker for the Rams in 1949 from virtually unknown Grambling University in Louisiana.

Younger was the first player from a predominantly Afro-American southern university to play in the NFL. He earned the nickname "Tank" from Grambling's sports information director, who described the 235-pound fullback's running style as that of a Sherman tank. Younger was a member of the Rams' famed Bull Elephant backfield that included quarterback Bob Waterfield and running backs Dick Hoerner and Deacon Dan Towler and played on the 1950 and '55 teams that reached the NFL Championship game and on the 1951 team that won the championship.

Younger earned a Pro Bowl invitation as a running back and linebacker after the 1950 season. He was invited to five Pro Bowls and played in three, missing the 1951 game because of a military obligation and the 1954 game because of a knee injury.

Younger was traded by the Rams to Pittsburgh following the 1956 season. He concluded his playing career with the Steelers in 1957 and embarked on a career in business and as a parttime scout for the Rams in 1958. Tank became a fulltime scout with the Rams in 1967 and in 1975 was named Assistant General Manager of the San Diego Chargers, for whom he handled a variety of administrative, player personnel, and business responsibilities.

Younger returned to the Rams in 1987 and has served principally in scouting players in black colleges, player signings, and team travel. He will continue to work in these areas and as a direct liaison with Rams' players.

Paul Lawrence Younger was born June 25, 1928, in Grambling, Louisiana. He spent much of his early life in Los Angeles but returned to Louisiana as a teenager. Tank and his wife, Lucille, a Los Angeles-based pediatrician, reside in the Lafayette Park section of Los Angeles. They have one son, Howard, a banking executive in Los Angeles, and two daughters. Harriette is an emergency room physician at Daniel Freeman Hospital in Inglewood. Lucy is employed by the County of Los Angeles as an environmental architect.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOE VITT

Assistant Head Coach/Safeties

14th NFL season
First with Rams

Vitt, 37, originally joined the Seattle Seahawks in 1982, handling the team's conditioning and strength program after spending three years as the weight training coordinator for the Baltimore Colts (1979-81). Vitt added defensive responsibilities in 1983 when Chuck Knox was appointed head coach of the Seahawks. Vitt was a three-year letterman at linebacker at Towson State University in Maryland after attending Highland Reginal High in Camden, New Jersey. Married to Linda, the couple has two children, Joe, Jr., and Jennifer.

GEORGE DYER

Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line

11th NFL Season
First with Rams

Dyer, 51, formerly the defensive line coach of the Seattle Seahawks (1983-91), joined the Rams in 1992 as defensive coordinator. He also will directly oversee the development of the defensive line. Dyer has spent the last 10 years with Chuck Knox, a span which began when Knox hired Dyer as a coach with the Buffalo Bills in 1982. Prior to joining the Bills, Dyer served as defensive coordinator at Arizona State (1980-81) and at Michigan State from 1977-79 seasons. He also coached for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League from 1974-76 and had stints with San Jose State (1973) and Idaho (1972). Dyer broke into coaching at Humboldt State University (1964-66) before becoming the head coach at Coalinga Junior College, CA., in 1967. He was defensive coordinator at Portland State University from 1968-71. Dyer played center and linebacker at the University of California at Santa Barbara. He attended San Gabriel High in San Gabriel, California. Married to Marjorie, the couple has five children, sons, George and Doak, and daughters, Tami, Darci, and Marni.

ERNIE ZAMPESE

Offensive Coordinator

17th NFL Season
Sixth with Rams

Zampese, 56, is the only member of the previous coaching staff to be retained by Head Coach Chuck Knox. Prior to joining the Rams in 1987, Zampese was the offensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers (1983-86) after serving as the team's receivers coach from 1979-82. HISTORY OF ANAHEIM STADIUM

Anaheim Stadium was erected in 1966 as home of the California Angels baseball team at a cost pf $16 million. The stadium (43,250 capacity) was expanded in 1979 in order to increase capacity to house the Los Angeles Rams. The expansion in 1979 increased the capacity to almost 70,000 at a cost of $29 million. The first football game scheduled upon completion of the expansion was Aug. 11, 1980, when the Rams faced the New England Patriots. The first game the Rams ever played in Anaheim Stadium was Aug. 2, 1967, when they played host to the New Orleans Saints in a preseason game before a crowd of 26,364.

THE RAMS STORY: 1937-1991 RAMS

1937 On Feb. 13, the National Football League grants a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Hugo Bezdek is named head coach. As the league's rookie franchise, Rams finish with a 1-10-0 record. Bob Kelley is named radio play-by-play announcer at start of season.

1938 Assistant coach Art Lewis takes over team after three losses and Rams win three of remaining seven games.

1939 Earl "Dutch" Clark becomes head coach. Rams hit .500 mark for the first time with 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joins team as rookie tailback and wins Joe Carr Trophy as NFL's official Most Valuable Player.

1940 Team drops back to 4-6-1 record. Johnny Drake, powerful Ram fullback, is named to first team All-NFL.

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr. purchase Rams in June and hire Billy Evans as general manager. Team wins first two games but drops next nine to finish in cellar.

1942 Evans resigns before 1942 season. Charles "Chile" Walsh replaces Art Lewis as assistant coach. Lt. Reeves and Major Levy depart to enter armed forces. Bob Kelley is named club secretary. Team finishes 5-6-0.

1943 Clark resigns. Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime difficulties. Reeves buys out Levy.

1944 Chile Walsh becomes general manager and appoints Buff Donelli as head coach. Pickup team finishes 4-6-0.

1945 Donelli joins military service. Walsh names his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach. Third round draft choice (a future) Bob Waterfield from UCLA joins team as T-formation quarterback and leads Rams to 9-1-0 season for first divisional title in team's history. On icy field, Rams defeat Washington Redskins, 15-14, at Cleveland for world title. Waterfield becomes first player to receive unanimous vote for official NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh is named coach of the year. Eddie Kotal joins team as chief scout and Bill John begins 29-year tenure as business manager.

1946 Reeves moves franchise to Los Angeles early in the year. After disappointing 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resign.

1947 Reeves assumes duties of general manager. Bob Snyder is named head coach with Joe Stydahar as new assistant. Team is talent-heavy but injury-ridden in 6-6-0 season. Reeves sells part interests to former partner Levy and to Edwin and Harold Pauley and Hal Seley.

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joins staff as advisory coach. On Sept. 3, Snyder resigns and Clark Shaughnessy becomes head coach. Team wins four of last five to post 6-5-1 mark.

1949 Team wins first six games then hangs on to win first divisional title since moving west. Heavy rain holds down L.A. crowd as Philadelphia Eagles skid to 14-0 win over Rams in NFL title game. Rookie Norm Van Brocklin joins team and gives Rams top-notch one-two quarterback punch. Elroy Hirsch has fine rookie year.

1950 NFL absorbs AAC, leaving Rams as lone pro team in Los Angeles after four years of two-league existence. In February, Stydahar becomes head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. Club opens new offices on Beverly Boulevard. Bill Granholm begins 18-year tenure as equipment manager. Team sets 22 league records in rolling to conference title tie. Waterfield and end Tom Fears lead playoff win over Bears, 24-14, but following week in Cleveland, Lou Groza's late field goal stops Rams' title hopes, 30-28.

1951 Rams win third straight conference title on final day of season, then defeat

Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on 73-yard pass, Van Brocklin to Fears, for first world title since moving to Los Angeles.

1952 After team loses three straight preseason games and drops league opener by big score, Stydahar resigns. He is replaced as head coach by Hamp Pool. Team loses two of next three, but wins last eight to tie for conference title. Rams lose playoff in Detroit. Rams trade 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter, who then enters Army for two years. Waterfield retires.

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passes away. Team compiles 8-3-1 record, losing three games by total of eight points to finish third in conference. Rams defeat world champ Lions in both games.

1954 Bonus choice Bill Wade and tradee Les Richter both join Rams as rookies two years after going from college into military service. Team has disappointing 6-5-1 mark. All assistant coaches resign. Pool soon follows suit.

1955 On Jan. 26, Rams hire Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. Fine defensive year and clutch field goal kicking by Richter give team hard-fought 8-3-1 record for conference title. Cleveland wins title game at Coliseum by onesided score.

1956 In form reversal, team loses five consecutive early-season games and finishes in cellar tie with 4-8 record.

1957 Ram owners name former Ram publicist Pete Rozelle as general manager. Team loses squeakers on road to 49ers and Lions, finishing 6-6-0, but only two games behind conference leaders.

1958 In preseason trade, Van Brocklin goes to Eagles. Bill Wade sets many Ram passing marks en route to 8-4-0 year.

1959 Team has general letdown and many injuries for worst season since 1937, finishing 2-10-0. Ollie Matson, acquired in big trade, is workhorse at fullback. On last day of season, Gillman and staff resign.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle is named NFL commissioner. Elroy Hirsch replaces Rozelle as Rams general manager. Bob Waterfield is named Ram head coach. Team finishes 4-7-1.

1961 Rams trade Bill Wade, Del Shofner, John Guzik for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow and 1962 first draft choice, which makes it possible to draft both Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen. Revamped Rams finish strongly after slow start, but still show 4-10-0 deficit.

1962 Rams lose four of first five games by narrow margins, then show only occasional surges of success en route to 1-12-1 year. Waterfield resigns after eighth game. Harland Svare named interim head coach. On Dec. 27, in closed auction, Reeves reacquires control of Rams, purchasing full interests of co-owners Pauley, Levy, Seley and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sells 49% interest in Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare is retained. Les Richter retires before season. After 0-5 record, Gabriel is reinstated as starting QB and plays last nine games without relief, guiding team to 5-4 mark and season record of 5-9-0.

1964 Rams sign 10-year pact to play in "new look" Coliseum's "stadium-within-a-stadium." Fourteen rookies make the season squad. Club finishes fifth with 5-7-2 record.

1965 After winning only one of first 10, Rams take three of last four against top two teams in each conference, but Svare is dismissed.

1966 After a court fight, George Allen is released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears to become head coach of the Rams. NFL and AFL merge in spring. Bob Kelley, "Voice of the Rams" since the club's beginning in 1937 dies in September. Team finishes 8-6.

1967 After 17 years on Beverly Boulevard, club moves to new building on Pico. Training camp is also moved to California State College at Fullerton after five years at

Chapman College in Orange. Equipment manager Bill Granholm leaves club after 18 years to take position in league office. Rams record first unbeaten preseason in history with six wins, including victories over first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. Team completes finest win-loss season ever with 11-1-2 league record to win Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955, then loses to Green Bay in Western Conference Championship Game.

1968 After playoff win over Cleveland in January, team finishes regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1 mark. Attendance is over one million for second straight year and Ram defense sets new 14-game NFL record for fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen is dismissed as head coach, but is re-hired two weeks later.

1969 After 20 years with the Rams as a player, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch leaves club to become athletic director at the University of Wisconsin. He is replaced by Public Relations Director Jack Teele, and John Sanders becomes Assistant General Manager. Team wins Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game, 23-20. Quarterback Roman Gabriel is unanimous choice as the NFL's Most Valuable Player.

1970 Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas in January heads Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With the completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams join San Francisco, Atlanta and New Orleans in the Western Division of the National Conference of the new 26-team National Football League. Rams finish second to 49ers with 9-4-1 record. George Allen's contract is not renewed.

1971 On April 15, owner Daniel F. Reeves dies of cancer in New York. His longtime friend and business associate, William A. Barnes, becomes President and General Manager. Tommy Prothro replaces Allen. Playing the toughest schedule in the NFL, the Rams finish with an 8-5-1 record, second to 49ers in the NFC West.

1972 In a history-making move, Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom trades the Baltimore franchise to Robert Irsay in exchange for the Rams. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves. The transaction was completed and announced on July 14. Rosenbloom, the most successful owner in the NFL over the last two decades, brings with him to Los Angeles Don Klosterman, Rosenbloom's general manager in Baltimore. After five years at Cal State Fullerton, Rams move training site to Cal State Long Beach. After 6-7-1 season, all coaches are dismissed.

1973 An observer in '72, Rosenbloom begins to make changes early in 1973, and they pay off quickly. His choice for head coach, former Detroit assistant Chuck Knox, leads team to 12-2 season, winningest in Rams history, and Knox becomes "Coach of the Year," Roman Gabriel is traded to Philadelphia and the new quarterback, former San Diego Charger John Hadl, is NFC "Player of the Year." Rams win NFC West title, but lose in first round of playoffs to Dallas. Other changes introduced by Rosenbloom include return to blue and gold uniforms. Club returns to Cal State Fullerton for summer training.

1974 Carroll Rosenbloom's son, Steve, takes over as Assistant to the President. After 3-2 start, Rams trade John Hadl to Green Bay for five draft choices in bold move that stuns the football world. Hadl's backup, James Harris, becomes starter and leads team to 10-4 record, its second straight NFC Western title and its first playoff victory since 1951 (a 19-10 win over Washington) before the Rams bow to Minnesota, 14-10, in NFC title game.

1975 With defense allowing second fewest points in NFL history over a 14-game season (135), Rams win third straight NFC Western title by completing 12-2 season. After playoff victory over St. Louis, however, they bow to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game. The 34-8 record over the last three years is best in the NFL.

1976 Rams win NFC West title for fourth straight year with 10-3-1 record then beat Dallas, 14-12, for their first playoff victory on the road before 24-13 NFC title game loss at Minnesota. Quarterback injuries mar season and rookie Pat Haden becomes fourth different playoff QB in four years under Knox. Rams' 351 points is highest in NFC.

1977 Rams spearhead new Coliseum configuration which reduces capacity from 91,038 to 71,039. With Lawrence McCutcheon setting new club career rushing record of 5,523 yards, the Rams (10-4) roll to their fifth straight division title before 14-7 playoff loss to Minnesota in Coliseum. Following the campaign Knox resigns to take Buffalo Bills head coaching post.

1978 On Feb. 1, Rosenbloom hires George Allen but releases Allen after second preseason game. Ray Malavasi becomes head coach and leads club to 12-4 mark for the sixth straight division title (tying NFL record). Rams beat Minnesota, 34-10, in playoff but lose NFC title to Dallas. Rams also announce move to Anaheim Stadium beginning in 1980.

1979 Carroll Rosenbloom dies April 2 and his widow, Georgia, becomes majority owner. Club moves to Rams Park in Anaheim, where offices and practice facilities are together. Despite multitude of injuries, team wins 7th straight division title to set NFL record, then beats Dallas (21-19) and Tampa Bay (9-0) in NFC Playoffs. Rams lose to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV, 31-19.

1980 With Anaheim Stadium's capacity set at 69,045, Rams sell out last six home games and finish with 11-5 record. Rams lead NFL in rushing for first time since 1957, gaining 2,799 yards. Rams set 15 club records and tie three others. Nolan Cromwell named consensus All-NFL and receives award as NFC Defensive Player of the Year. Rams enter playoffs as wild card and lose to Dallas, 34-13.

1981 Rams finish 6-10, missing playoffs for the first time since 1972. Nolan Cromwell and LeRoy Irvin named All-NFL. Irvin sets NFL record with 207 punt return yards in 37-35 win over Atlanta. Wendell Tyler rushes for 1,074 yards and ties Elroy Hirsch's club record of 17 touchdowns in a season. Rams sell out first seven regular season games at Anaheim Stadium.

1982 NFL players' strike wipes out seven games of the regular season schedule and the Rams finish last in the NFC with a 2-7 record. QB Bert Jones, acquired in draft day trade from Baltimore, misses last 5 games with a neck injury. In his place, Vince Ferragamo throws for 509 yards vs. Chicago, second highest in league history. Following the season Malavasi is dismissed.

1983 In one of the most dramatic turnaround years in NFL history, Georgia Frontiere begins by hiring former USC Coach John Robinson in February. Revamped front office engineers a dozen off-season trades. Eric Dickerson is drafted on the first round in April. Robinson installs new offense (single back) and new defense (3-4) while Frontiere signs all players on roster. Rams go 9-7 and enter playoffs as wild card team beating Dallas in Texas, 24-17, before losing to Redskins in Washington. Dickerson breaks NFL rookie rushing record (1,808 yards), sets five Ram records and is consensus All-Pro. Cromwell, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Dickerson make Pro Bowl. Robinson named NFC Coach of the Year.

1984 Rams make playoffs for second time in as many years after finishing with 10-6 mark. Host first ever playoff game at Anaheim Stadium before record crowd of 67,037 but lose to New York Giants in NFC wild card game. Again, Eric Dickerson is the offensive force behind the Rams success as he rushes for 2,105 yards breaking O.J. Simpson's NFL record of 2,003. Jack Youngblood sets Ram record by playing in his 201st consecutive game. Quarterback Jeff Kemp replaces injured Vince Ferrangamo in Week Three and leads team to nine wins. Dickerson is named NFC Player of the Year and makes Pro Bowl along with Henry Ellard, Kent Hill and Doug Smith.

1985 Rams season falls just one game short when they get beat by the Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game. The defense and special teams play prominent roles in 11-5 regular season. Rams defense stifles Minnesota on one-inch line to preserve 13-10 victory as time runs out in Week Five. Ron Brown electrifies Anaheim Stadium crowd by returning two kickoffs for touchdowns against Green Bay to tie NFL record in Week Twelve. Eric Dickerson misses first two games but returns to rush for 1,234 yards. he sets an NFL playoff record by rushing for 248 yards against Dallas in first ever playoff win (20-0) at Anaheim Stadium.

Nine Rams make NFC Pro Bowl team: Ron Brown, Jim Collins, Gary Green, Dale Hatcher, LeRoy Irvin, and four offensive linemen, Dennis Harrah, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith.

1986 Rams make playoffs for fourth consecutive year after posting a 10-6 regular season record. Rams acquire rookie Quarterback Jim Everett from Houston in major trade with Oilers. Everett throws three touchdown passes in debut against Patriots and starts last five games including playoff loss to Washington. Eric Dickerson rushes for over 1,000 yards for fourth consecutive season (1,821) and surpasses former Ram running back Lawrence McCutcheon as the teams all-time leading rusher with 6,968 yards in only four seasons. Defense plays important role in Rams' success, finishing fifth in total defense in the NFL yielding 304 yards per game. Seven Rams selected to Pro Bowl - Dickerson, Carl Ekern, Jerry Gray, Dennis Harrah, LeRoy Irvin, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith.

1987 Rams fail to make the playoffs for the first time in last five seasons while finishing with a 6-9 record. NFL players' strike shortens season by one game while three games are played with non-union players. Rams acquire six draft choices (three No. One's and three No. Two's over the next two years) from the Colts in blockbuster trade for Running Back Eric Dickerson. Charles White takes over for Dickerson and wins NFL rushing title by gaining 1,374 yards and is named to his first Pro Bowl as well as unanimous All-NFL.

1988 Rams qualify for the playoffs for the fifth time in six seasons under John Robinson, who becomes the winningest coach in club history with 58 wins. Rams lose NFC Wild Card Game to Minnesota after finishing with a 10-6 record. Team features wide open offense as Jim Everett sets four Ram passing records and ties a fifth while wide receiver Henry Ellard sets a Ram record for most catches in a season with 86. Defensively, the Rams tie a club record with 56 quarterback sacks which leads the league. Rams have five of the top 47 choices in draft and select RB Gaston Green and WR Aaron Cox on the first round. Five players are selected to the Pro Bowl - Jackie Slater, Henry Ellard, Tom Newberry, Doug Smith and Jerry Gray.

1989 Rams finish regular season with a 11-5 record and qualify for playoffs as a wild card entry. Team posts road playoff victories over Philadelphia and N.Y. Giants before losing to San Francisco in NFC Championship game. Rams 13 wins are the most since 1978. Jim Everett becomes the first player in club history to pass for over 4,000 yards (4,310), while receivers Henry Ellard (1,382 yds.) and Flipper Anderson (1,146) are the first two receivers to gain over 1,000 yards in the same season. Anderson also sets NFL record with 336 re-ceiving yards on 15 catches vs. New Orleans. Safety Vince Newsome tops defense with 89 tackles while Linebacker Kevin Greene registers 16.5 quarterback sacks. Jerry Gray, Kevin Greene, Tom Newberry, Jackie Slater, Doug Smith and Ellard make the Pro Bowl. Gray returns interception for a touchdown and is named the game's Most Valuable Player.

1990 Henry Ellard, (most receptions with 412 and yards with 7,037), and Jackie Slater (most games played with 209) both set Ram records as the team posts a disappointing 5-11 record. Ellard and Willie "Flipper" Anderson also become first receivers in Rams history to have consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons, a feat only two other NFL teams have accomplished. Rams spoil 49ers attempt to break NFL record of consecutive wins by beating San Francisco at Candlestick, 28-17. 1990 also marks comeback of former college phenom Marcus Dupree, who returns from what was considered a career-ending knee injury. Safety Vince Newsome again leads the team in tackles with 92, while Kevin Greene contributes 11.5 sacks. Jackie Slater and Jim Everett represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1991 Rams suffer through one of the most disappointing seasons in their history by finishing with a 3-13 record. The franchise loses a record 10 games in a row to finish the season. John Robinson resigns as head coach prior to the club's last regular season game. Tackle Jackie Slater becomes the first player in Ram history to play 16 seasons. Rams fail to have a player named to the NFL Pro Bowl for the first time since the game's inception in 1950.

1992 Rams hire former head coach Chuck Knox (1973-77) as head coach, replacing John Robinson. Rams select DT Sean Gilbert, of University of Pittsburg with third choice.

Game #1

Phoenix Cardinals 24, RAMS 14

Anaheim Stadium, Sept. 1

In a game marked by seven turnovers, the Rams lost to the Phoenix Cardinals, 24-14. On the first possession of the game, QB Jim Everett fumbled and LB Eric Hill returned it 85 yards for a Cardinal touchdown. Following another Ram fumble, Phoenix Quarterback Tom Tupa found Receiver Ernie Jones for a 28-yard touchdown pass, putting the Cardinals up 14-0. However, paced by the strong running and receiving of Robert Delpino, the Rams were able to bring the score to 14-7 when Delpino scored on a one-yard run. In the game, Delpino accounted for 242 yards of all-purpose offense. Tupa then snuck in for a 1-yard touchdown and a 21-7 Cardinal lead at halftime. In the second half, Delpino scored another one-yard touchdown run, but Phoenix added a 32-yard field goal by Kicker Greg Davis and the Rams were unable to come back, losing 24-14.

Game #2

RAMS 19, New York Giants 13

Giants Stadium, Sept. 8

The Rams surprised the World Champion New York Giants, 19-13, at Giants Stadium in New Jersey. Los Angeles opened the scoring when Kicker Tony Zendejas hit a 29-yard field goal, but Giants' Kicker Matt Bahr answered with a 46-yarder. With the score tied 3-3, RB Robert Delpino ran a draw play on third and long 36 yards to the New York one-yard line. Seconds later, Delpino bulled in for the score and a 10-3 Rams lead. Later in the second quarter, Bahr added another field goal, this time hitting from 40 yards out. However, the Rams scored three consecutive times, with Zendejas kicking field goals of 50, 32 and 33 yards. Down 19-6, New York scored late in the game on a one-yard run by David Meggett. On the following kickoff, the Giants attempted an on-side kick which was recovered by TE Jim Price.

Game #4

San Francisco 49ers 27, RAMS 10

Candlestick Park, Sept. 22

The 49ers handed the Rams their second consecutive defeat, 27-10, in San Francisco. Mike Cofer put the 49ers ahead with a 22-yard field goal to open the scoring, but the Rams drove right back, capping it off with Robert Delpino's touchdown run of one yard. Los Angeles moved the ball down the field again, but had to settle for a 22-yard field goal by Tony Zendejas. On their last possession of the first half, 49ers' QB Steve Young hit WR John Taylor for a 12-yard touchdown, making the score 13-13. The second half was all San Francisco, as the 49ers scored three straight times. Cofer added a 47-yarder; Young hit Jerry Rice for a 62-yard pass play and Harry Sydney scored on a 25-yard touchdown run.

Game #5

RAMS 23, Green Bay Packers 21

Anaheim Stadium, Sept. 29

The Rams held off a late Packer rally to edge Green Bay, 23-21. Kicker Tony Zendejas continued his perfect showing on kicks, hitting a 30-yard field goal to open the day's scoring. Then, QB Don Majkowski scored on a eight-yard draw play to put the Packers ahead, 7-3. Zendejas added another field goal before Karl Wilson forced Green Bay RB Allen Rice to fumble. After LB Paul Butcher recovered at the Packer 12-yard line, RB Robert Delpino scored his fifth touchdown of the year from two yards out. Just seven seconds later, Butcher slammed into Green Bay KR Vai Sikahema, popping the ball into the air and into the waiting arms of Ram Anthony Newman, who ran in for a 17-yard touchdown. In the second half, Zendejas hit his third field goal of the afternoon, putting the Rams up, 23-7. Green Bay backup QB Blair Kiel then led his squad to two late touchdowns, but the Rams ran out the final 4:49 to preserve the win.

Game #6

RAMS 30, San Diego Chargers 24

Anaheim Stadium, Oct. 13

The Rams defeated the San Diego Chargers, 30-24, in their best offensive showing of the year. The Chargers were on the board first, when QB John Friesz hit WR Anthony Miller for a 30-yard touchdown score. However, Jim Everett threw 18 yards for his first touchdown pass of the year, finding TE Jim Price for the score. Later in the second quarter, Friesz threw a 49-yard touchdown pass to WR Nate Lewis and a 14-7 lead. The Rams came right back when RB Robert Delpino dove in from the one-yard line and tied the score. On a key play late in the first half, Kevin Greene tackled Charger RB Marion Butts for a safety with no time remaining, giving the Rams a 16-14 lead. The Rams opened the second-half scoring when Delpino ran for his second TD of the day, but the Chargers made it 23-21 when RB Rod Bernstine scored from one-yard out. Everett found Price again for a 12-yard score, and San Diego Kicker John Carney hit a 27-yard field goal, but the Rams preserved the win, 30-24.

L.A. Memorial Coliseum, Oct. 20

The Rams allowed the Raiders to score 10 unanswered fourth-quarter points and lost, 20-17 on a last-second field goal by Jeff Jaeger. The Rams began the scoring when Jim Everett lofted a seven-yard touchdown pass to RB Robert Delpino, but the Raiders answered when QB Jay Schroeder hit WR Willie Gault for a nine-yard score. In the second quarter, Ram Kicker Tony Zendejas continued his perfect season, hitting a 37-yard field goal to make the score, 10-7. The Rams threatened late in the first half, but Everett fumbled the snap on the Raiders' one-yard line, halting the drive. The Raiders tied the game at 10-10 when Jaeger kicked a 35-yarder, but the Rams re-gained the lead when Everett found WR Vernon Turner for a 19-yard score. The Rams turned the ball over a second time, when Safety Ronnie Lott picked off Everett in the end zone and the Raiders drove 80 yards on five plays, capped by RB Nick Bell's one-yard score. On the following possession, Lott intercepted his second pass of the game to set up Jaeger's game-winning 34-yard field goal with two seconds remaining.

The Rams lost to the Atlanta Falcons, 31-14, at Fulton County Stadium. The Falcons scored 31 unanswered points and coasted to the win and a 4-4 record. The loss dropped the Rams' record to 3-5 at the halfway point of the season. Atlanta opened the scoring when QB Chris Miller hit WR Floyd Dixon for a 19-yard TD pass. Running Back Pat Chaffey then scored his first NFL touchdown on a five-yard run. Miller again threw scoring tosses to receivers Andre Rison and Michael Haynes of 20 and 55 yards, respectively. Norm Johnson added a 44-yard field goal in the third quarter to close out the Falcons' scoring. The Rams' only scores came on a nine-yard run by RB Robert Delpino and an 18-yard pass from replacement QB Mike Pagel to TE Pat Carter.

Game #9

New Orleans Saints 24, RAMS 17

Anaheim Stadium, Nov. 3

Turnovers plagued the Rams as they were held off by the New Orleans Saints, 24-17, at Anaheim Stadium. The Saints jumped out to an early lead after CB Vince Buck intercepted Jim Everett on the third play from scrimmage, setting up a Morten Andersen 45-yard field goal. On their next possession, Saints' QB Steve Walsh, who started in place of the injured Bobby Hebert, found FB Craig Heyward for a 22-yard touchdown pass, giving the Saints a 10-0 lead. However, following a 78-yard swing pass to Robert Delpino, the Rams scored on a 31-yard field goal by Tony Zendejas, keeping his perfect season intact (10-for-10). In the second quarter, S Michael Stewart intercepted Walsh and set up the first Ram touchdown, a two-yard run by Delpino. With only three seconds remaining in the first half, Walsh hit Wesley Carroll for a 31-yard score to put the Saints up 17-10. New Orleans increased its lead when RB Buford Jordan slashed 11 yards for a touchdown, but the Rams came right back on an Everett to Willie Anderson scoring pass to make the score, 24-17. The Rams got the ball back late in the game, but were stopped by the Saints, who preserved the win to go 8-1 on the season.

Game #10

Kansas City Chiefs 27, RAMS 20

Anaheim Stadium, Nov. 10

The Rams lost their fourth straight to the Kansas City Chiefs, 27-20, in Anaheim. The Chiefs moved out to a 7-0 lead when QB Steve DeBerg found TE Jonathan Hayes for a six-yard score. The Rams came back, when Jim Everett hit TE Damone Johnson for the first of Everett's three touchdown passes. Kansas City struck back when RB Barry Word ran over from the one. Everett then found Ellard for 14 yards and the score, tying the game at the half. The Chiefs scored twice in the third quarter, when K Nick Lowery connected on field goals of 20 and 40 yards. With Kansas City leading, 20-14, the Rams evened the score when Everett hit Johnson again, this time for 17 yards. However, K Tony Zendejas missed his first extra point of the year, locking the score at 20-20. The Rams threatened late in the game, but Chiefs' LB Derrick Thomas picked up a Robert Delpino fumble and ran 23 yards for the game- winning touchdown. The Rams threatened again but Thomas forced an Everett fumble to secure the Chiefs' victory.

Game #11

Detroit Lions 21, RAMS 10

Pontiac Silverdome, Nov. 17

The Rams held All-Pro RB Barry Sanders to only 57 rushing yards but lost their fifth straight game, 21-10, to the Detroit Lions at the Pontiac Silverdome. The Rams scored first when Tony Zendejas made a 27-yard fied goal, but on the next Ram possession, FB Buford McGee fumbled and soon after, Lion QB Erik Kramer found WR Robert Clark in the end zone for a six-yard touchdown. With the score 7-3 in the third quarter, Jim Everett hit Henry Ellard for a 19-yard score, their second scoring connection in two games. After a 25-yard burst by Sanders, Kramer hit Clark for his second TD of the day. But turnovers plagued the Rams again, as Everett was picked off by CB Ray Crockett, and Kramer connected with WR Mike Farr for his third touchdown pass of the day and a final score of 21-10. Late in the game, Everett, who managed his third straight 300-yard passing game and fourth in five contests, drove the Rams to the Detroit 15-yard line, but his fourth-down pass fell incomplete and the Lions preserved the win.

Anaheim Stadium, Nov. 25

The 49ers jumped out to a 30-0 lead in the second quarter and never looked back, beating the Rams 33-10 in front of a sellout crowd at Anaheim Stadium on Monday Night Football. San Francisco scored its first two touchdowns on runs by RB Harry Sydney and FB Tom Rathman, and added another two points on a safety when Ram Kick Returner Vernon Turner recovered a David Lang fumble at the one-yard line and rolled back in the end zone. Soon after, Sydney scored his second TD of the day, this time on a two-yard pass from QB Steve Bono. RB Dexter Carter then ran in from three yards out, putting the 49ers up by 30 points. Ram K Tony Zendejas scored for the Rams by hitting a 37-yard field goal with no time left in the half, and RB Marcus Dupree scored his first NFL TD in the third quarter, giving the 49ers a 30-10 lead. Kicker Mike Cofer added a 39-yard field goal late in the game, for the final score of 33-10 and the Rams' sixth straight loss.

Game #13

Washington Redskins 27, RAMS 6

Anaheim Stadium, Dec. 1

The Rams lost to the Washington Redskins, 27-6, at Anaheim Stadium. The Rams jumped out to an early lead when Tony Zendejas kicked a 41-yard field goal, his longest of the year. Washington came back when QB Mark Rypien found TE Terry Orr for a 47-yard score, but the Rams pulled within one when Zendejas added his second field goal of the day and his 14th straight this season. The Redskins scored 20 unanswered second-half points, a run which began after Ram WR Willie Anderson fumbled and Rypien fired a touchdown pass to WR Ricky Sanders. Running Back Ricky Ervins then caught a screen pass from Rypien and scampered 24 yards for the score, and Chip Lohmiller added two field goals of 35 yards to give Washington a 27-6 NFC East-clinching victory.

Game #14

Atlanta Falcons 31, RAMS 14

Anaheim Stadium, Dec. 8

The Rams lost their eighth straight game, losing to the Atlanta Falcons, 31-14, in their final home game of the season. The Falcons scored first when DE Tim Green recovered a Jim Everett fumble and K Norm Johnson booted a 21-yard field goal. Then, after S Brian Jordan blocked a Barry Helton punt, RB Steve Broussard scored from one yard to make it 10-0. The Rams closed to within a field goal when Everett hit TE Pat Carter for a six-yard pass. The Falcons would go on to score three unanswered touchdowns, as Broussard scored again from one yard and QB Chris Miller threw touchdown passes to wide receivers Andre Rison and Michael Haynes. Down 31-7, the Rams scored late in the game when backup QB Mike Pagel threw a 13-yard pass to Rookie FB Ernie Thompson, his first NFL score.

Minnesota Vikings 20, RAMS 14

Hubert H. Humphery Metrodome, Dec. 15

The Rams lost for the ninth time in a row, bowing 20-14, to the Minnestoa Vikings at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis. The Vikings jumped out to 10-0 lead paced by Herschel Walker's two-yard run and a 20-yard field goal by Fuad Reveiz. However, on the Rams' first drive of the second half, RB Cleveland Gary scored from one-yard out, his first touchdown of the year. The Vikings struck back when Reveiz added a field goal of 22 yards, but the Rams were threatening again before CB Reggie Rutland picked off Jim Everett on the three-yard line and returned it 97 yards for a touchdown. With Minnesota leading, 20-7, the Rams drove 76 yards, capping it off with an 8-yard score from Everett to WR Henry Ellard. The Ram defense held the Vikings late in the game and Los Angeles had the ball at its own 35-yard line with :57 left, but Everett fumbled the snap and DT Henry Thomas recovered for Minnesota and the 20-14 win.
